Tobacco and Cigars.

Merchants, grocers, and saloon-keepers should not forget that Messrs. Corlis & Rankin, proprietors of the Prairie State Tobacco Factory at Metropolis, have opened an establishment at the corner of Sixth street and Ohio levee in this city where they will do a wholesale and retail business in the tobacco and cigar line. They have on hand the largest and most complete stock of tobacco and cigars ever opened in Cairo, and are prepared to supply the wants of the trade at the lowest living prices. Dealers are invited to call and examine their stock.

The Rainbow

In the sky is a sign of God's promise that the world should never again be destroyed by water; and viewing the tenacity with which men hold on to life, it is surprising to all how recklessly they snap the links of their constitution, because of the derangement of their constitution, because they are so light as to soon wear away. Mistaken decisions! If one of the parts of our delicately complex organism be injured, it throws greater strain on the rest, and all suffer. Wishing to maintain the animal economy in a healthy state and to restore lost power, we have only to use the celebrated Home Stomach Bitters.

Never Known to Fail.

Dr. Morris' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hourhound has never been known to fail in permanently curing obstinate coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, nor any disease of the respiratory organs, and it does it, too, at once. It is not necessary to take it for a long time before you can discover its beneficial effects. Its sale in this community is immense, and its popularity universal. It should not be classed with compounds put up by inexperienced hands. Do not fail to give this great and potent remedy a trial. It will not disappoint you. Try it once. Trial size, 10 cents. Regular size, 50 cents and one dollar.

Local Brevities.

—Stuart & Ghoslon will offer one hundred pieces new spring prints on Monday morning.

—Rev. Mr. George will conduct service in the Presbyterian church to-day at the regular hours. Services in the evening as usual.

—There will be services at the Church of the Redeemer this morning at 11 o'clock, and this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Sunday school at 3 o'clock, p. m.

—Stuart & Ghoslon are selling bleached and brown cottons at lower prices than the same have ever been offered at.

—There will be services at the Methodist church to-day, Rev. D. J. Gillham officiating. Services in the evening also. Sunday school at three o'clock, p. m. All are invited.

—There will be the usual services at the Episcopal church to-day, the rector, the Rev. Mr. Dillon-Lee officiating. Hours of service 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Evening prayer with lecture every Friday at 7:30 p. m.

—At the meeting of the council on Friday night, the votes cast at the late election were canvassed, and the result announced. The result was the same as announced in the BULLETIN of Wednesday morning.

—In yesterday morning's paper we stated that J. F. Miller had been elected captain of the Hibernian fire company. In this we were mistaken. Mr. Miller was not a candidate for captain of the company.

—We earnestly invite every buyer of dry goods to give us a call before buying. We can and will save you money.

STUART & GHOSLON.

—Mrs. Dr. Gardner has gone to Chicago. Mrs. Gardner, with a number of other ladies of the state, is now engaged in an effort to establish a "home for friendless girls," and her visit to Chicago is on business connected with that project.

—Dan Dean, proprietor of the Arlington House, will leave for St. Louis tomorrow afternoon, where he goes to purchase new furniture and carpeting for the Arlington hotel. Mr. Dean is determined to put the Arlington in first-class condition.

—Mr. John C. Foggett, late ticket agent at Cairo for the Cairo and St. Louis railroad, together with his family, took their departure yesterday for St. Louis, where they will make their home in the future. Mr. Foggett is a good citizen, and we regret that he has gone from among us.

—Chief Gossman yesterday afternoon arrested two colored men at the corner of Sixth street and Commercial avenue for being drunk and disorderly. The men were both under the influence of liquor, and as a consequence quarrelsome. They were locked up, and will be taken before Judge Bird for trial tomorrow morning.

—Rev. Mr. George will leave the city on Tuesday next for the East where he will remain for four and perhaps six weeks. Mr. George has been in poor health for some time, and his trip to the East is made in the hope of regaining his former strength and vigor. He will spend the greater part of his time in Philadelphia.

—Among the guests at the Planters' House yesterday were J. C. Corwin, Brad's Mill; M. S. Walker, St. Louis; S. A. Well, Cincinnati; W. R. Brown, New York; D. Jones, Cincinnati; F. E. Jewett, St. Louis; Frank Young, Chicago; C. P. Hammond, Clinton, Ky.; J. Mang, St. Louis; E. B. Hills, Boston; M. G. Norton, New Orleans; Pat. Gill, Sikeston; A. D. Frasier, Austin, Texas; S. B. Whitten, Chicago.

—Prominent among the arrivals at Herbert's yesterday were W. F. Topp, H. C. Wells, F. W. Dickens, Evansville; Burton Backle, New York; Alf. Honard, T. T. Baxter, Walt. Wilson, and F. M. Martain, St. Louis; A. D. Atkins, Chicago; Will Dinton, Memphis; Allen F. Thayer, Cincinnati; and W. E. Carter, Vicksburg.

—The Dexter City, (Mo.) Enterprise, of Thursday last contained the following: "We spent a day and a night in Cairo last week and were pleased to see that the Arlington House in the hands of Mr. J. Dan Deane, is becoming the hotel of the city. Mr. Deane and his efficient clerk, Mr. Henry, know how to make you feel at home and how to keep a good hotel."

—The next sociable to be given by the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church will take place at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Walker, on Twentieth street, near the corner of Commercial avenue, on next Thursday evening, April 20th. Those who attend this sociable may depend on having a pleasant time, as everything that can be will be done to make it such.

—Among the arrivals at the St. Charles yesterday were: J. C. Jones and J. F. Hicks, New Orleans; Miss H. Darlins, Carbondale; L. A. Wagner, Williams, Mo.; and A. G. Smith, St. Louis; C. A. Hawkins, Wm. Thomas, and Geo. Blackburn, New York; B. F. Scribner, New Albany; John A. Viall, Harrisburg; Miss Lydia Smith, Stockton, Cal.; Geo. W. Jene, Indianapolis; James London, Chicago; Jas. Williams, Cincinnati; H. W. Wood, San Francisco, Cal.; Wm. Henderson, New Orleans.

—The following dispatch was sent from Baltimore to the St. Louis Times yesterday. This beats the "fish" and "snake" story all to pieces.

BELMONT, Mo., April 20.—The monster sea turtle, weighing over seven thousand pounds, shipped from New Orleans, and consigned to E. M. Freidheim, St. Louis, was cut loose from the flat car which he was fastened to by some unknown party while being transferred across the river at Columbus, Ky., and he made his escape into the Mississippi river. It was impossible to rescue him. He made headway for down the stream.

Stewart & Ghoslon call particular attention to their immense stock of ladies', children's and gent's hosiery, as being the most varied, extensive, and cheapest stock of hosiery ever offered in this city.

—Mr. Dewey, who spent several weeks in New Orleans on business for the firm of Hardin & Dewey, returned to Cairo on Friday night. Mr. Dewey says there is very little excitement in New Orleans over the contested governorship; and that there was more excitement in Cairo over the contested governorship.

—The usual religious services will be held at the M. E. church, corner of Eighth and Walnut streets, to-day at the regular hours, conducted by the pastor, Rev. D. J. Gillham. Subject of the morning discourse: "The import of the Lord's supper." Evening service—subject: "The contrast between the yoke of sin and Christ's yoke." Sunday school at 3 o'clock, p. m.

—The funeral services over the remains of the late Gustav Bader will be held at the residence of his brother William, corner of Eighth street and Washington avenue, to-day, Sunday, at 1:30 o'clock, p. m. A special train will leave the foot of Eighth street at 2:30 p. m. for Beech Grove cemetery, where the remains will be interred. The friends and acquaintances of the deceased are invited to attend the funeral.

—There is considerable speculation as to who will be Mayor Winter's new chief of police. Some of the knowing ones—or those who profess to be the "knowing ones," say Charles Arter is the coming man, while others assert that his honor will continue the present chief in office. Mr. Gossman has made a good and faithful officer, and Mayor Winter would act wisely if he should re-appoint him. Henry Stout has also been mentioned in connection with the police force. We suspect, however, that there are very few people in the city who know anything about what Mayor Winter intends to do in the premises, and all talk is mere speculation.

—At a meeting of the Cairo Turners, Society, of which body the late Gustav Bader was a member, the following resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, our late brother, Gustav Bader has peacefully died;

Resolved, That we feel that we have lost a brother who was true to our association in every respect;

Resolved, That we tender our kindest sympathy to the family of our deceased brother, whom he has labored so long, patiently and diligently to protect from the cold world;

Resolved, That copies of the above resolutions be published in the city papers, and a copy be sent to the family of the deceased. Also that the same be spread upon the minutes of this society.

CHAS. MEHNER, Sec'y.

—We have received a copy of the Port Huron (Michigan) Times, containing an account of the opening of the new custom house at that place. The article pays a high compliment to our former fellow-citizen, Mr. Geo. H. Sease, who has had charge of the work of constructing the building. The Times says:

"The expressions of admiration and satisfaction on the part of those visiting the building on Saturday were universal. The work throughout has been honestly, thoroughly, and economically done; nothing has been slighted or neglected, and the building will stand for centuries as a monument of good workmanship. For this all praise is due to Mr. Geo. H. Sease, the efficient superintendent, who has given to every detail of the work his personal attention, and whose ability and efficiency are not surpassed, we believe, by any builder in the employ of the government. We trust that he will not be sent elsewhere until the completion of the work outside the building."

—Three-card monte men are plenty, and almost daily we hear of them playing their game on unsuspecting strangers. Yesterday morning, between nine and ten o'clock, two of the gang who are to be seen on the streets almost any hour in the day, fell in with a stranger on Ohio levee, near the Planter's House, and after showing him the lights, took him down to see the new warehouse of the narrow gauge railroad. After looking at the house one of the party pulled out his cards and in a very short time the stranger was interested in the game, and in the end came out about twenty dollars. Of course the thieves had important business elsewhere just about that time, and left the stranger promising to return in a few minutes. But they did not come back, and after waiting for more than an hour the swindled man told his story to some men near by, and in turn was told that he had been robbed. Of course the "operators" made their escape and up to last accounts had not been captured.

—One of the boldest robberies perpetrated in Cairo in years occurred on Commercial avenue between Fourth and Sixth streets yesterday morning. Mrs. Jas. Johnson was the victim, and the robbery occurred in this way: Mrs. Johnson had been to see a lady in the lower portion of town, and on her way home, when between Fourth and Sixth streets, a negro man approached her stealthily from behind, and without her knowledge, succeeded in picking her pocket, and making his escape without Mrs. Johnson's even suspecting that any one had approached near to her. Michael Glenn, a dryman, who happened to be near at hand saw the whole transaction, and told Mrs. Johnson that she had been robbed. She felt for her pocket-book, but it was gone. To say that she was surprised and alarmed when she learned of what had taken place, does not half express her feeling. A description of the theft was given to the officers, and they are now on his track, and his arrest is only a matter of a day or two.

—Alderman Lancaster has, on several occasions since the election, asserted that there was great fraud practiced in the election for alderman in his ward. He has gone so far as to state openly that a number of votes cast for his opponent were paid for at the rate of five dollars a vote.

Mr. Lancaster has stated that several citizens of the Fifth ward have offered to contribute money to defray the expenses of a prosecution of the parties implicated in the purchase of votes. One patriotic citizen, Mr. Lancaster says, offered to contribute fifty dollars. These are serious charges, and, it true, it is the duty of Mr. Lancaster as a member of the city council, and as a sworn officer of the city, to have them investigated. Mr. Lancaster should accept the offer of the patriotic gentlemen who have asserted a willingness to open their purses that the parties practicing the frauds may be prosecuted; and if he refuses to do so now, it may become necessary for the grand jury, which meets in the course of the next three or four weeks, to summon Mr. Lancaster before them and compel him to tell what he knows of the frauds in the Fifth ward. Frauds of the character alleged by Mr. Lancaster should not be allowed to go unpunished; and if Mr. Lancaster is the good citizen we believe him to be, he will not hesitate to do his utmost to prosecute the parties implicated in them.

—Lizzie Young, alias Lizzie Martain, is a "nymph of the pave" who hangs out in one of the dens on Commercial avenue below sixth street. Lizzie has been in her time, as the phrase has it, a "fine looking" woman. She is "fat and fair" though not forty. She is perhaps not over twenty-one or two years of age, though in sin and vice she is fifty. For some time past her friends have noticed that she has been low spirited, and at times downcast and sorrowful. She has talked much of wanting to die, and has often been heard to inquire "what would kill me the quickest, and cause the least pain." Several days ago she showed one of her friends a small package, and said it contained morphine, and added, "one of these days you will find me ready for the coroner." All this was considered idle talk, however, and her friends paid no attention to it. But events have proven that Lizzie was in earnest, and was only waiting a favorable opportunity to shuffle out of this world. Friday night she was found in her bed in an insensible condition, and when medical aid was called it was found that she was laboring under an over-dose of poison—morphine. For a time it was thought she could not recover, and she was given up as a hope less case; but as the hours wore on it became apparent that she had taken an over-dose, and with proper attention she might possibly "pull through." She was still alive last night and in a fair way to recover. What caused her to attempt suicide is not positively known, but it is supposed some one of her male friends has "thrown off" on her, and that is more than any lighted demirep can stand without an attempt at suicide.

Two Irreconcilable Conditions.

Debility and health are irreconcilable conditions. Weakly people, that is to say people who lack the vitality requisite for a vigorous discharge of each and all of the bodily functions, are invariably afflicted with some, though it may be a trifling, disorder of the system. Atomy, or a want of muscular and nervous vigor, is accompanied by poverty of the blood and leanness. A certain way to overcome it and prevent the aggravated maladies to which it must ultimately lead is to use Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which promote digestion and assimilation of the food, and thus are the means of furnishing the body with a supply of blood of a quality essential to its proper nourishment. Invigoration through the instrumentality of the matchless tonic protects the feeble from a host of bodily ills which lurk in ambush for the debilitated. The bitters are an article which it is most desirable to keep constantly on hand.
